

Identify Story Elements

As you read the story, highlight the story elements (e.g., characters, setting) in the story.

Define Unfamiliar Words

As you approach a word that is unfamiliar, provide meaning of the word and an example that the child can relate to.

Elicit Literal and Inferential Questions

Ask questions that can be answered by thinking about the text and combine it with what they already know.

Analyze Illustrations

Discuss illustrations to reinforce new word learning and narrative elements (e.g., characters, setting)

www.iowareadingresearch.org

IOWA
READING
RESEARCH
CENTER

Identify Story Elements

As you read the story, highlight the story elements (e.g., characters, setting) in the story.

Define Unfamiliar Words

As you approach a word that is unfamiliar, provide meaning of the word and an example that the child can relate to.

Elicit Literal and Inferential Questions

Ask questions that can be answered by thinking about the text and combine it with what they already know.

Analyze Illustrations

Discuss illustrations to reinforce new word learning and narrative elements (e.g., characters, setting)

www.iowareadingresearch.org

IOWA
READING
RESEARCH
CENTER

Identify Story Elements

As you read the story, highlight the story elements (e.g., characters, setting) in the story.

Define Unfamiliar Words

As you approach a word that is unfamiliar, provide meaning of the word and an example that the child can relate to.

Elicit Literal and Inferential Questions

Ask questions that can be answered by thinking about the text and combine it with what they already know.

Analyze Illustrations

Discuss illustrations to reinforce new word learning and narrative elements (e.g., characters, setting)

www.iowareadingresearch.org

IOWA
READING
RESEARCH
CENTER

Identify Story Elements

As you read the story, highlight the story elements (e.g., characters, setting) in the story.

Define Unfamiliar Words

As you approach a word that is unfamiliar, provide meaning of the word and an example that the child can relate to.

Elicit Literal and Inferential Questions

Ask questions that can be answered by thinking about the text and combine it with what they already know.

Analyze Illustrations

Discuss illustrations to reinforce new word learning and narrative elements (e.g., characters, setting)

www.iowareadingresearch.org

IOWA
READING
RESEARCH
CENTER 